

I believe that our government is here to protect the freedom and liberty of its PEOPLE, not its corporations. The airwaves and other public media could become an avenue for propaganda if only a few giant corporations control most or all of our information channels. A free society needs a free press, which in today's world includes radio and TV. Please support the rights of PEOPLE over the rights of corporations.

Sincerely,
Mike Ricketson